

ACADEMIC CENTENARY CELEBRATION (2010-2011)Department of Pulmonary Medicine

C.S.M.Medical University UP, (Erstwhile K.G.M.C)

Lucknow - 226003

Dear Friends,

It gives me immense pleasure in inviting you to the first exclusive one day CME & UPDATE ON TUBERCULOSIS organized by the department of Pulmonary Medicine, Chhatrapati Shahuji Maharaj Medical University Uttar Pradesh Lucknow, and Uttar Pradesh TB Association. It has been a long felt desire to hold a fully dedicated CME on Tuberculosis to fill the gaps in current understanding about its diagnosis and management.

We have tried to focus on issues related with pulmonary, Extra- pulmonary, pediatric as well as drug resistant (MDR / XDR-TB) tuberculosis. The lectures will be simple and informative and will be delivered by eminent national faculty members of repute, which will help postgraduates as well as practicing physician in proper management of patients. There will be enough time for interaction and discussion with the speakers. It will be a great opportunity that you can not afford to miss.

So you are all requested to ensure your participation and get yourself registered.

The registration details are as under:-

Category	Registration Fees
Delegates (including PG Student)	500/-

Payment can be made by Demand Draft/Cash only. The DD should be in favour of "PULMONARY MEDICINE UPDATE" payable at Lucknow.
